"Spreading the Gospel to Deaf, Hard of Hearing & Hearing People"

Hello Partners in the Lord's vineyards.

I want to share with you the incidents of an accident occurred on Thursday, 12th May, 2022; to one of our resourceful evangelism teams Leaders in person of Bro. Linus Koko

The accident happened after office hours, he went on with mission bike to plug his cellphone at a deaf man barber around 6pm, a deaf barber asked him to wait to put on the generator around 7:30pm, he waiting there until then plugged his cellphone and left at 9pm while on his way back home with the mission bike, a car hit him at the T-junction and ran away left him a helpless. People around assisted him and took him to the hospital for treatment.

I was informed and checked him in the hospital and took pictures of his injuries and the mission bike damaged.

DOCTOR'S REPORT ON HIS CONDITION

1. Doctor said his blood level is ok
2. He (LINUS KOKO) will be referred to University College Hospital (UCH) for plastic surgical because of the wound on his leg cut deep
3. the x-ray results will be out tomorrow Saturday. Praying that his ankle did not damage or broken

PRAYER

Dear partners, please join us to pray for Linus Koko's quickly recovery so as to continue using his God given purpose for the work of the ministry in Jesus name.

It is dawn on us as the Doctor will refer him to UCH, we know the doctor there at UCH will ask for money first before service. We need your prayer and assistance toward medical treatments.

Thanks and God blessed you.

Yours' in His Vineyard.
